General Sale Condition

Institutions

This Educational Software Licensing must only be used for non-commercial educational purposes. It may be applied for schools, colleges, universities and other educational institutions: any government-accredited school can apply for educational licensing on a school purchase order.

Contract duration

This contract is valid for a minimum of 12 months (24, 36, 48 or 60 months if more years entered above), except for Product ID B95 - SPECIAL OFFER that may be applied only one time per year.

Body Interact will notify any software price changes for subsequent years at the latest 4 months before the end of the overall commitment period in writing (email being sufficient).

On each subscription renewal date, selected content packages can be changed for other content package available in the Standard Library.

Prices

Price ex-works, does not include taxes or shipping cost and any other customs clearance fees, if applicable.

Prices apply to a single school campus only. To use the software on another campus of the same institution, an additional license is required.

Hardware prices may vary due to market conditions without prior notice.

Validity

Software prices are valid until December 31, 2023.

Taxes

Taxes such as Value Added Tax (VAT) will be added as required by law and are borne by the Client, most international transactions do not require the addition of VAT, this does not imply potential tax implications for the Client by authorities in their jurisdiction and such taxes are borne by the Client.

Invoicing and payments

Note that the content access part of your order will be split into 75% content, 25% technology on your invoice.

Standard terms for payment for software shall be 30 days from receipt of correct invoice.

Invoices that also include hardware items must be paid before shipping date.

Content

At the beginning of the subscription, the content packages are chosen by the Client according to their availability in the product's Standard Library.

Scenario editing option is limited to changes on debriefing priorities without changing the health conditions core structure previously defined for each scenario.

Automatic updates & upgrades on software features or clinical guidelines are made through a built-in auto-updater system. Internet is required.

Body Interact takes no liability for correctness, completeness, or quality of the offered information and materials. Content produced by external authors does not represent an opinion held by Body Interact.

All the medications, diagnostics and treatment names shall be consistent with terminology commonly used in the US and EU markets.

Copyright

The Client is not allowed to copy or recreate the content or violate Body Interact's copyright in any other way.

Licenses

Licences are individual user licences, licence sharing is not permitted and will trigger termination of account and liability for damages to Body Interact.

Subscription is valid for 365 days after activation day, except for Product ID B95, SPECIAL OFFER.

An institutional email is required to set up any account. Accounts are only provided to Educators or Learners belonging to an unique School campus. Each user is only eligible for one single-user license. A proof of current academic status is required.

Each license requires internet connectivity every 30 days.

Body Interact software may not be used for development of any organization's products or services. Body Interact software may not be shared with any third parties.

Training

Online training sessions for Educators will be given by video conference, with an estimated duration of one hour per session.

Client support

Product Help Center is available at help.bodyinteract.com. Personalized client support is provided on business days, Monday to Friday, 9am-5pm Western European time, by email or chat, within 24 hours. Email: support@bodyinteract.com
